Thank you Sonja. I apologize. Your name was on another analysis in the case with this defendant [REDACTED] and I mixed it up.

Thank you for catching that, and sorry to have wasted your time.

Jim,
I expect the case to plea, but just in case, please let me know if you have any conflicts for that last week of April.
Thank you,

Hi Matt-

I just looked up the drug lab numbers for this case and saw that I am not the chemist who analyzed the drugs in this case, Jim Hanchett was. I'm forwarding Jim this email so he knows, but I'm not sure what his schedule looks like for April 24, 2012 or the days following it, so you may want to get in touch with him. Thanks.

Hi Sonja,

I have one of your cases set for trial on April 24, 2012 in Hampden Superior – [REDACTED] et al.). I doubt it will be a trial, but it is a second offender with a mandatory minimum, so there is a possibility. Can I have you on call for that day and the days shortly thereafter in case there is a trial?

Please let me know your thoughts.

Thanks,
- Matt
